By His Grace

Grace Presbyterian Church welcomes all baptized Christians who are willing to forsake their sin and trust in Jesus Christ for salvation, and who are members of congregations that proclaim the gospel, to receive the Holy Communion with us.

If you choose to partake, you may get up at any time and walk toward the front down the center aisle. Tear off a piece of bread, take a small cup of grape juice, and return to your seat. We will all partake together once everyone is served.

We use communion Sundays as an opportunity to give an extra offering in gratitude for the Lord’s grace and to support the church’s missions and mercy ministries. Contributions to missions are used to support missionaries with whom we partner. Mercy Box offerings are used to meet emergency financial needs of those in our community.

“The narcissism of our culture has given birth to ‘McChurch,’ a generation of consumer driven churches competing with each other like fast-food restaurants. Something is tragically wrong when a prominent church leader in our day will suggest that the only reformation we need is one of “self-affirmation.” God have mercy on us! No matter our denomination, theological heritage, or liturgical preference, we need revival in the American church!” — Scotty Smith

Title: “The Bumper Stickers of Reformation”

As a protestant church, we stand in the historical stream of the Reformation. But, even as we remember and celebrate that heritage on Reformation Sunday, what does it mean to be “reformed” today? Where are we in need of the Lord to shine His light of grace and re-creation, that we would be re-made and re-formed, more and more into what He wants us to be as a church?

What will make a difference today?

Welcome to Grace Presbyterian Church! Whether you are a believer in Jesus Christ, a skeptic, or simply someone with a lot of struggles and questions – you are welcome here!

We are a family of incomplete, “work in progress” people centered on the redeeming love of Jesus Christ. We want to follow Christ in His mission and promise of making all things new (Revelation 21:5), and we believe this promise applies to individuals, to families, and to all of life. We invite you to intersect your story with ours as we all intersect with the Gospel – the Good News of Jesus.

At Grace Presbyterian Church, our times together aim to be worshipful (lifting Jesus high, focusing on His greatness, and hearing from Him in His word) and filled with community (loving each other and our guests). You are welcome here. We do not have a dress code or outside expectations of you. We simply invite you to come to Jesus, bring your life and questions to Him and hear from Him by His Spirit and through His Word.

Grace Church

PCA

In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, this church offers welcome to all who sin and need a Savior; to all who are spiritually weak and seek rest; to all who mourn and long for comfort; to all who struggle and desire victory; to all who are broken and long for healing; to all who are strangers and want fellowship; to all who hunger and thirst after righteousness and want to be satisfied; and to whomsoever will come.
