God Leads Us to Respond to the Gospel

Community Confession of Faith — The Nicene Creed¹

We believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of His Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father;

By whom all things were made; who for us and for our salvation came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary, and was made man; and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate; he suffered and was buried; and the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures, and ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father; and He shall come again, with glory, to judge both the living and the dead; whose kingdom shall have no end.

And we believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified; who spoke by the prophets; and we believe in one universal and apostolic church; we acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins; and we look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

¹ In a culture that triumphs individualism, professions of faith underscore the corporate heritage and unity of our worship. The Nicene Creed originated at the Council of Nicea (325 AD), and an expanded form was adopted by the Council of Chalcedon (451 AD). It was formulated to answer heresies that denied the biblical doctrines of the Trinity and the dual nature of Jesus Christ as fully God and fully man.

It is easy to believe that the Church has a lot of different objects – education, building, missions, holding services, even recreation...The Church exists for nothing else but to draw men into Christ, to make them little Christs. If they are not doing that, all the cathedrals, clergy, missions, and sermons are simply a waste of time. God became Man for no other purpose. It is even doubtful, you know, whether the whole universe was created for any other purpose.

Title: “Your Life Married to Another”

So what does this new life in Christ really look like? If we have been set free from external rules, laws, and obligations.... What are we freed to? What difference does the good news and freedom of the gospel really make in our lives?

To answer that, we turn to a Scripture that uses a surprising image....and that talks of being set free from a deadbeat spouse and rejoined to the best spouse ever!

Death with your deadbeat spouse

New life with your new Spouse

Welcome to Grace Presbyterian Church! Whether you are a believer in Jesus Christ, a skeptic, or simply someone with a lot of struggles and questions – you are welcome here!

We are a family of incomplete, “work in progress” people centered on the redeeming love of Jesus Christ. We want to follow Christ in His mission and promise of making all things new (Revelation 21:5), and we believe this promise applies to individuals, to families, and to all of life. We invite you to intersect your story with ours as we all intersect with the Gospel – the Good News of Jesus.

At Grace Presbyterian Church, our times together aim to be worshipful (lifting Jesus high, focusing on His greatness, and hearing from Him in His word) and filled with community (loving each other and our guests). You are welcome here. We do not have a dress code or outside expectations of you. We simply invite you to come to Jesus, bring your life and questions to Him and hear from Him by His Spirit and through His Word.
